N°11

2010 Vintage

About the Vintage

The 2010 vintage on the Sonoma Coast and across California was known as a trying one for wine grape growers in terms of weather and climate conditions. While yields were relatively low, the quality of grapes harvested was quite impressive.

- Spontaneous
- Graceful
- Romantic

Grape Variety:

Pinot Noir

Region:

Sonoma Coast

Why N°11:

For Jean-Charles, the age of 11 was a magical time in life, an age of endless possibilities and burgeoning dreams. Inevitably, the number 11 became the number behind this wine, one of his favorite Pinot Noirs, and a reminder of an enchanting time in life.

Winemaking Notes:

- Aged in French oak
  - 33% new oak
  - 10 months
- Wooden open-top fermenters with hand punch downs
- Basket press
- Alcohol: 14.5%
- 900 bottles produced

Tasting Notes:

N°11 is always SPONTANEOUS. Harmonious and balanced, it is quite GRACEFUL. With a texture like a velvet jacket, luscious flavors, and a seductively long finish, N°11 is ROMANTIC, reminiscent of an evening by a glowing fire.
