The story of our founder is as long as it is colorful. One of California's first sheriffs, Agoston Haraszthy was elected the Sheriff of San Diego County in 1850. He built the first jail and served two exciting years before moving north to pursue "purple gold" and the perfect terroir for fine wines. He found it in Sonoma County where he established Buena Vista Winery in 1857. It is his legacy that inspired this wine and the work of sheriffs everywhere that we honor with its release.

The Sheriff of Buena Vista proudly calls Sonoma County its home. The varietals that compose the 2013 vintage are harvested from vineyards throughout the county, including the Russian River Valley, Moon Mountain, Sonoma Valley, Sonoma Mountain, Alexander Valley and Rockpile. The individual varietals were aged separately for 18 months in a variety of new and neutral oak barrels before being blended prior to bottling.

The Sheriff of Buena Vista is deserving of its name. This bold 2013 Sonoma County Red Wine is an authoritative blend of Petite Sirah, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Grenache and Malbec. Tempting aromas of dark plum, blackberry and black licorice arrest the senses while flavors of cassis, strawberry rhubarb, graham cracker and a touch of ginger spread across the palate. Sweet, long tannins and a rich, juicy finish make this wine the perfect accompaniment to a myriad of dishes. Pair it alongside grilled spiced lamb chops or a hearty beef stew with garden vegetables.
