

October 17, 2025

Dear Valued Customer,

Due to continued increases in raw material costs, component costs, and associated tariffs, we are issuing price adjustments to Bradford White residential boilers. The new pricing will take effect on Monday, November 17, 2025.

The price adjustments are as noted in the following table:

Product	Adjustment Amount
Brute® Residential Boiler (80-285)	3%
Brute FT® Wall-Hung Residential Boilers and Combi Units	3%
Brute FT® Floor-Standing Residential Boilers and Combi Units	3.5%
Brute® Mini Boilers	3.5%

Notes:

1. Current pricing will only be honored for orders that are received at Bradford White by end of day Friday, November 14, 2025.
2. Current pricing will only be honored for orders placed for immediate shipment (based on the unit's published lead-time.)

For updated pricing, please reach out to your local manufacturers' representative or Regional Sales Manager.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions, and as always, we thank you for your business.

Sincerely,

Mark Avron
National Sales Manager, Bradford White Specialty Products
