Listen to my words, LORD, consider my lament. Hear my cry for help, my King and my God, for to you I pray.

Psalm 5:1-2

God is in the events of my life,
to draw me closer to Himself.

*Away from me, all you who do evil,
for the LORD has heard my weeping.
The LORD has heard my cry for mercy;
the LORD accepts my prayer.*

Psalm 6:8-9

As I draw closer to Him, I respond differently to the circumstance.

Hear me, LORD, my plea is just; listen to my cry. Hear my prayer—it does not rise from deceitful lips. Let my vindication come from you; may your eyes see what is right.

Psalm 17:1-2

That refugee response purifies
my motives and actions.

For those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God. The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship. And by him we cry, "Abba, Father."

Romans 8:14-15

- As believers, we possess and are led by the Spirit of God.
- The Spirit does not make us slaves, but sons/daughters.
- Children will call out to their Father.
