

POINTS OF THE SPEER

Many people in today's world seem to be satisfied in only accomplishing that which comes easy or without much effort. As believers, we are called to a higher standard. We must be willing to give our all to accomplish all that is possible for our Lord. There have been many examples of individuals who have refused to quit in life.

Johnny Fulton was run over by a car at the age of three. He suffered crushed hips, broken ribs, a fractured skull, and compound fractures in his legs. It did not look as if he would live. But he would not give up. In fact, he later ran the half-mile in less than two minutes.

Walt Davis was totally paralyzed by polio when he was nine years old, but he did not give up. He became the Olympic high jump champion in 1952.

Shelly Mann was paralyzed by polio when she was five years old, but she would not give up. She claimed eight different swimming records for the U.S. and won a gold medal at the 1956 Olympics in Melbourne, Australia.

In 1938, Karoly Takacs, a member of Hungary's world-champion pistol shooting team and sergeant in the army, lost his right hand when a grenade he was holding exploded. But Takacs did not give up. He learned to shoot left-handed and won gold medals in two Olympics.

Lou Gehrig was such a clumsy ball player that the boys in his neighborhood would not let him play on their team. But he was committed. He did not give up. Eventually, his name as entered into baseball's Hall of Fame.

Woodrow Wilson could not read until he was ten years old. But he was a committed person. He became the twenty-eighth President of the United States.

Certainly there have been many other such stories of committed determination, but none that match our Lord Jesus. He refused to quit going all the way to the cross for us. Shouldn't we give our all for Him everyday?

Moving forward for Jesus,

BACK TO SCHOOL SUNDAY

AUGUST 12th

*O God, You are my God; earnestly I seek You;
my soul thirsts for You; my flesh faints for You,
as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.*
-PSALM 63: 1

Ever feel like you are in a desert of “blah?” It is easy to lose our way when life hits hard with tragedy, injury, heartbreak, or distress. Yet God is faithful— even when it is difficult to muster the courage to seek Him. If you are in an emotional place right now that feels like being in the middle of a desert , consider these lyrics from my new favorite praise song:

*Walking around these walls
I thought by now they'd fall
But You have never failed me yet
Waiting for change to come
Knowing the battle's won
For You have never failed me yet
Your promise still stands
Great is Your faithfulness, faithfulness
I'm still in Your hands
This is my confidence, You've never failed me yet*
- from “Do It Again” by Elevation Worship

God’s peace and comfort to you,
Bro. Eric

Music Ministry

As we enter the month of August, we enter a month full of opportunities to join the choir. We will be working on the music we will sing with Mark Fountain on September 16th and Brian Redding on September 23rd. Friday, September 21 and Saturday, September 22 will be a weekend of music with Brian. During this weekend, Brian will lead the choir in music and Bible study in preparation for his night of music on the 23rd. Very soon we will be working on Christmas music in choir practice and you don’t want to miss that! We have so many wonderful times of music ahead of us. Join us and help us grow!
