2. Be Filled with God's Spirit Acts 6:3
3. Be active and faithful to the ministry and services of the church
4. Have compassion for the lost and be committed to seeing them come to Jesus

6. Create and preserve harmony in the church
7. Be able to keep in confidence those things which should not be discussed with others
8. Believe the Bible to be the inspired Word of God, without error, the source of authority for precept and practice. II Tim. 3:16
9. Believe in and practice "storehouse" giving. He must be a tither. Mal. 3:10

As the school year begins, it is easy to let many things other than God become top priority in family life. Richard Ross offers some great wisdom to parents on why youth group matters: “A year from today, you could have a teenager in your home who thinks and acts more like King Jesus—and who, by the Spirit—is making a difference in the world. All our plans point in that direction.”

Hope to see your students in youth group Wednesday! —Bro. Eric
