

Christ Community Church

Lead Pastor Profile

Summary: Christ Community Church of Fredonia, New York is seeking a dynamic Christian leader to fill its lead pastoral position. While exhibiting a high degree of spiritual maturity, the Lead Pastor will provide vision, organizational leadership, and pastoral care. He will assume the primary responsibilities of teaching and preaching as well as leading all efforts for evangelism and outreach. The candidate must have a strong ability to communicate the Christian faith to people of different generational, socio-economic, and urban/rural backgrounds. The Lead Pastor serves in association with the Converge MidAtlantic conference and alongside Christ Community Church's Elder Board.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Lead the church with vision and strategic thinking
- Assume primary responsibility for preaching the gospel at church services
- Provide one-on-one pastoral care to members of the congregation
- Serve as a member of the Elder Board
- Develop, disciple, and lead other staff and/or volunteer ministry leaders
- Build partnerships with other churches and community organizations to further Kingdom work

Skills and Qualifications:

- A committed and mature relationship with the living God
- High standard of personal character, conduct, and integrity
- 3-5 years of leadership in a ministry capacity
- A solid biblical/theological foundation that aligns with the Baptist values and convictions of Converge
- Bachelors degree required; Master's of Divinity or an equivalent degree preferred
- Excellent communicator and dynamic public speaker
- Strong interpersonal skills and the ability to lead members from diverse demographic groups
- Strong administrative skills

Interested applicants are encouraged to submit a resume and cover letter to Searchcommittee@christcommunityfredonia.com