General Conference Info and District Gathering

March 13th - 6:30 pm - Central UMC

Dear Church Members,

Many of you have been praying for our Denomination over the past few months. February 23-26, there is a called General Conference to determine the future United Methodist stance on Ordination of self avowed practicing Homosexuals and the performing on Homosexual weddings by our clergy and in our sanctuaries. I want to ask each of you to pray. I also remind you that we are a community of faith today and we will continue to be a community of faith on February 27th. While the General Conference will make a decision, we will not fully know how the Mississippi Annual Conference will respond to the decision until our Annual Conference in June. Following the General Conference, the Bishop and our 14 delegates will begin a series of meetings in each district to clarify what the decision will mean for us. The meeting for Meridian District will be on March 13 at 6:30 pm at Central UMC. Finally, there will be publicity, opinions and media misinformation, so to make sure you are fully informed, I have provided a link to the Conference web site below. This page will give you information on how you can receive the daily updates from the General Conference session, as well as how you can livestream the entire event if you wish. Please continue in an attitude of prayer for the United Methodist Church.

In Christ.
