There's a line that's been drawn through the ages
On that line stands the old rugged cross
On that cross a battle is raging
For the gain of man's soul or his loss

On one side march the forces of evil
All the demons and all the devils of hell
On the other the angels of glory
And they meet on Golgotha's hill

The earth shakes with the force of the conflict
And the sun refuses to shine
For there hangs God's Son in the balance
And then through the darkness He cries:

"It is finished!" The battle is over!
"It is finished!" There'll be no more war!
"It is finished!" The end of the conflict!
It is finished and Jesus is Lord!

Yet in my heart the battle was still raging
Not all prisoners of war have come home
They were battlefields of my own making
I didn't know that the war had been won

Then I heard that the King of the Ages
He had fought all life's battles for me
And victory was mine for the claiming
And now—praise His name—I am free!

"It is finished!" The battle is over!
"It is finished!" There'll be no more war!
"It is finished!" The end of the conflict!
It is finished and Jesus is Lord!
