Kids' Corner by Ann van der Merwe

How much?

Do you ever think about how much God loves you?

It can be all too easy to remember but not really think about verses like John 3:16. "For God SO loved the world," it says, "that He gave his one and only Son. Anyone who believes in Him will not die but will have eternal life."

Think about that. God gave up HIS SON for you. And since God's Son is also God, he really gave up HIMSELF for you.

That is amazing love. That is crazy love.

A Good, Good Father

Soul Food: A Word from Randy

Home Never Leaves You

It was instant love. You may know exactly what I mean. It's that feeling you get the first time you hold your newborn baby. For us, the next 17 years flew by. Kindergarten, sports, church activities, etc. Busy, but wonderful. Admittedly, the teen years were a mixture of pleasure and pain. The last months before he left for Marine Corps boot camp, I was away with the Army, leaving Karen to deal with his rebelliousness. He would tell us that he couldn't wait to leave home!

Three years later, only a few weeks after I arrived in Baghdad, I received a call from Nick, who was deployed with the Marines in Djibouti, Africa. He was getting ready to take his four day pass to Qatar and wanted to know if I could meet him there. Surprisingly, my commander let me go. Very early on our last morning together, I walked with him to the airfield, said "good-bye," then turned and walked away. It was dark, very dark. I was headed back to Iraq and had no idea when I would see him again. Overwhelmed with grief, I wailed from the depths of my being.

That was many years ago. Today, Nick and Amy, devoted followers of the Lord Jesus are happily married with four children. Their home, just outside of Atlanta has been our lodging each month for the last couple of years that Karen and I have traveled to Ft. Gillem, Georgia for my military duty.

When a child leaves home, there's no guarantee that he or she will ever return. However, a loving home may never leave them.

Today's gospel story has a happy ending, at least for the prodigal and his dad. The prodigal left home, but home never left him. Every day he spent out of sight, his loving Father longingly looked for him, ready to spare no expense to welcome him home. Jesus shared it with his disciples to teach them about God. God, through the Gospel writers, teaches it to us. "God, You're a good, good Father, that's who You are!"

Do you Love God's Little Ones?

Children's Ministry is seeking both caregivers and volunteers for our nursery. Caregivers provide for the physical needs of our infants and toddlers (changing diapers, feeding, etc.) and ensure that all safety protocols are being followed. Caregivers are paid an hourly wage, must be 18 years old, and must be background checked. Volunteers will offer support to the caregivers by playing, singing, reading stories, and sharing the love of Jesus with our little ones. If you are interested in joining our nursery team in either of these roles, please contact Ann van der Merwe at ann@lebanonpresbyterian.org.

Family Movie Night: Cars 3

Bring the whole family to LPC for our next Family Movie Night on Friday, February 16. We will be watching Cars 3, in which Lightning McQueen learns that putting others first can be a wonderful thing. Pizza and popcorn are served at 6:30 p.m., and the movie starts soon after. Cost is just $7 per family. Don't miss it!

Women's Retreat

Today after both worship services, there will be a member of the Women's Retreat Committee available in the Narthex to answer any questions about the March 23-25 Retreat. We hope you enjoyed the skit "Grace Needed? Grace Given?" Chaplain Karen Fleming from Mt. Pleasant will lead our teaching sessions on "Grace". Please join us for this "amazing" weekend.

This Week's Cover Art

The Prodigal Son

James B. Janknegt is an artist, devoted to the pursuit of sacred art who lives and paints in Elgin, TX. The first impression of Jim Janknegt's paintings is one of vivid color and playfulness. That's a good impression to remember as you delve into what's beneath the surface. Take time to look and reflect and you'll understand this quote of Walker Percy:

"Art tells people something they already know but don't know that they now it."

In Jim's work, you will find a colorful mix of influences from painters as diverse as Marc Chagall, New Mexico folk artists, Henri Rousseau, the Cubists, Pierre Bonnard, Stuart Davis, Stanley Spencer and Byzantine icons. But Jim gives equal status to everyday stuff. These items are props for the retelling of familiar Bible stories. Jim honors our suburban, rural and urban environment as contemporary settings for timeless truths. He is showing us that the sacred is found in the secular.

In other words, it is not so much "What would Jesus do?" as "What does Jesus do?"

To quote the artist - "Jesus used everyday imagery in his parables, not overt religious symbols. The beauty of the parables is located in their ambiguity; he leaves them open-ended."

Can my prayers really help turn a person away from sin and toward God?

When a family member rejects his or her family and more importantly God, what are we to do?

Can God really save a person who seems to be totally lost?

Out of a Far Country

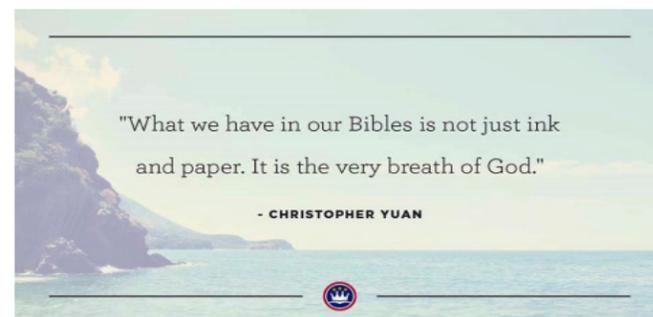

Sunday, February 25

at both the 8:45 and 11:15 a.m. Services

In weekly worship, we have been exploring the parable of the Prodigal Son. On February 25, our congregation will hear the testimony of a family about their modern-day prodigal son experience as their son, Christopher, rejected his family to embrace reckless living as a drug user and drug dealer. Christopher was an agnostic gay man and is now a Bible professor and Christian speaker.

Dr. Leon and Angela Yuan experienced years of heartbreak, confusion, and prayer. Through it all, God gave Christopher's parents the grace to rely on His power and focus on their own daily renewal and transformation. At the same time, God worked to turn Christopher's unbelief into belief, and free him from the bondage of drugs and promiscuity.

The Yuan family testimony offers an opportunity for LPC families to engage in critical conversations, including with their 5th/6th grade, junior high and high school kids. To serve the needs of families with younger children, we will also be offering a unique version of Children's Church on this Family Fourth Sunday open to preschoolers and all elementary-age children. Multiple leaders will work with different age groups to explore the Prodigal Son story. As you ponder your children's joining you in hearing the Yuans' testimony, you are encouraged to visit www.christopheryuan.com to learn more about Christopher's story and his ministry.

What is it that defines us as human beings?

Is it our sexual identity, or our relationship with God?

*In a world of division and identity issues,
how should Christians respond?*

Saturday, February 24

Holy Sexuality & the Gospel:

In-depth testimony, teaching and discussion in two sessions.

9:00- 10:00 a.m. “A Christian Response to Sexual Identity”

Dr. Christopher Yuan articulates a biblical view of sexuality as he shares his personal transformation from an agnostic gay man to a Bible professor. Sexual identity is one of the most relevant topics of our day. How does the gospel (sin, repentance, and redemption) influence a Christian view of sexual identity? Christopher casts a compelling vision of embracing our identity in Christ over our sexual identity, pointing us toward the biblical standard of holy sexuality that resonates with LPC and EPC positions on sexuality.

10:30- 11:30 a.m. “The Bible and Same-sex Relations”

Six passages in Scripture touch on the issue of homosexuality. Traditional and current cultural interpretations of these passages seem to clash. What does the Bible really say? With a solid background in biblical exegesis—having studied both Hebrew and Greek—Dr. Yuan presents and analyzes Old Testament and New Testament passages with clarity and compassion.

Prayer of Confession Rick McNeely
Merciful Father, day after day, the ocean stays in the boundaries You have set for it. Day after day, I go outside the boundaries You have set for me. The reasons vary, but the result is always the same. I sin and fall short of the glory of God. LORD, I am here at Your throne, desiring Your forgiveness. I thank You for Your mercy that is always ready to reach out to me. I confess my sins and I receive Your abundant pardon. LORD, I ask for a fresh new motivation to follow Your will and Your ways. May my words and actions this day be pleasing in Your sight. Amen.
