Kids' Corner by Ann van der Merwe

Where's Waldo?

Waldo is a cartoon character created by Martin Handford who wears a distinctive red and white striped shirt and hat. He appears in pictures of crowds and events, and anyone looking at the picture is asked, "Where's Waldo?"

Sometimes it can be hard to find Waldo, but he is easy to recognize. He always looks the same. And once you have seen him, you won't forget what he looks like.

As Christians, we should be that easy to recognize. We should wear our faith like Waldo wears his striped shirt and hat, saying and doing things that make people think about Jesus. We should be part of the crowd, but also stand out.

How can you be like Waldo this week?
