Kids' Corner by Ann van der Merwe

Steven Khoury

Steven Khoury was born in Jerusalem and grew up in Bethlehem. He is an Arab...and he is also a Christian. He has been teased and bullied by Arabs because he was a Christian rather than a Muslim. People have tried to hurt him simply because he was worshipping God. But he has kept going, feeling called by God to preach the Gospel to the Arab community in modern day Israel.

I hope hearing from Pastor Khoury today will give you courage to live out your faith – even when it is hard. I hope his loving response to anger will inspire you to love even those who try to hurt you. I hope you will see him as an example of how to follow Jesus and that it will help you follow Jesus, too.

 BACKYARD OF JESUS

Welcome, Steven Khoury!

Now, LORD, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness.

- Acts 4:29

This morning we welcome Steven Khoury as our guest preacher.

Steven was born to an Arab Palestinian Christian family in the city of Jerusalem but grew up in Bethlehem. Today, he pastors the largest Arab evangelical church in East Jerusalem and in the Palestinian territories. He is a renowned speaker, television commentator and writer for Al-Quds, the largest Arabic newspaper in the Holy Land.

I met Steven in February during a trip to the Holy Land. What impressed me most was his boldness. In a very hostile environment, Steven is not afraid or ashamed to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ. His life has been threatened many times. He has been beaten up and stuffed in a trash can. In his church, they keep water buckets ready to douse any firebombs thrown at the church during the service.

His passion is to reach those who are against Christ with the love of Jesus. I thank God for Steven Khoury and hope you will find a moment this morning to greet him and encourage him!

WE PRAY

Prayer for the Persecuted Church Ann van der Merwe
LORD Jesus, you are no stranger to conflict and violence. As soon as you were born, the world conspired to kill you. When you were just a baby, your parents had to flee from Bethlehem to escape persecution. Based on false testimony, you were arrested and put on trial. At the hands of the wicked men, you were beaten and flogged. Although you were innocent of any crime, you were nailed to a cross and left to die in agony. LORD, we pray this morning for the persecuted church. By your spirit, give them peace in their pain and joy in their suffering. Give them boldness to speak, and faith to endure and overcome. Be present with them, that they would not feel alone. We ask especially for your church in the city of Bethlehem. In whatever trials they face, help them to be a shining light and a faithful witness to you. All this we pray in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, AMEN.
