It's easy to say thank you to someone who gives you something you really want. You probably don't even have to think about it. The words just fall out of your mouth because you are so happy with the gift!

But how do you respond when someone gives you something you really don't want? Do you smile and squeeze out a polite "thank you"? Do you say something else? Whatever you do, it probably doesn't come as naturally.

In the same way, it is easy to praise God when life is good. But today's scripture reminds us that we should also praise God when life is not so good. The reason is simple: God is still blessing us even when things seem bad. Sometimes, God works through really bad stuff to do something amazing...and we need to wait. Sometimes, God wants us to appreciate that we always have his love...even when we might not have much else. Always, God wants us to have joy. And joy means praising God for his goodness no matter what!

Meet Our New Members!

Nancy Allwes recently moved to Ohio from the Pittsburgh area to be near her family. She has three children, eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She enjoys reading and spending time with her family. She is joining by letter of transfer from Lebanon Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Rick Beckwith moved to Ohio from North Carolina in 2015 and settled in Lebanon this year. Rick says he has “bounced around a lot” in his life and that is looking forward to putting down roots here at LPC. He worked for 20 years for Gerber Scientific, Inc. and did a lot of travelling around the United States and Europe before retiring in June. He enjoys playing golf, travel, having dinner out, movies and NFL football. He is joining LPC by Reaffirmation of Faith.

Tom and Patricia Bellgraph are joining by letter of transfer from First Presbyterian Church in Hastings, Michigan in the Grand Rapids area. They live in Morrow, and moved here to be near their children and grandchildren. Tom is a retired CPA and Patricia is a retired school counselor. They enjoy exploring the many entertainment options in the Cincinnati area.

Ed and Pamela Bowman recently moved from Tennessee to Ohio to be closer to family. Ed is a pastor in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church but retired due to health issues. Together, they have served churches in Texas and Louisiana. According to Ed, they came to LPC expecting not to like it but instead, they fell in love with the church and knew immediately that God wanted them here. Pam is joining by letter of transfer from Ascension Evangelical Presbyterian Church in Bristol, Tennessee.

Lynn and Gary Brooke are joining by letter of transfer from North Lake Church in Lady Lake, Florida. They moved to Ohio in May to be near family and live at Mount Pleasant Retirement Community. Gary and Lynn owned a printing business in the Columbus area before retiring 20 years ago. They have two children, four grandchildren and “five and a half” great grandchildren. They enjoy golfing, playing bridge and “getting as much exercise as possible.”

Mike and Mandy Martinson join LPC by letter of transfer from Sycamore Presbyterian Church in Cincinnati. Mandy grew up in Lebanon and works as a domestic relations attorney in Lebanon. Mike grew up in Dayton and is a mechanical engineer for General Electric. They live in Maineville with their three children Zach (7), Rosie (5), and Joey (2). Mike and Mandy enjoy being outdoors, playing board games and spending time with family.

Roger and Diane McMurrin are joining LPC by letter of transfer from First Presbyterian Church in Orlando. Roger and Diane have spent the past 25 years serving as missionaries in Ukraine where they founded the Music Mission Kiev and where Roger conducted the Kiev Symphony Orchestra. Diane taught the Bible to widows and wrote four books and a radio program. Previously, Roger served as choir director at Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church in Ft. Lauderdale and Highland Park Presbyterian Church in Dallas. Now, they have come to Lebanon to retire.

Audra Morrison is joining LPC by Reaffirmation of Faith. Audra and her husband, Robert, moved to Lebanon in 1981. They have been married for 55 years and are blessed with five children. They enjoy their ten grandchildren, restoring their historic home, knitting, quilting and cooking. Audra’s youngest daughter, Molly, also worships at LPC with her family.

Stephen and Connie Parrish join LPC by letter of transfer from Sycamore Presbyterian Church in Cincinnati. They have lived in Lebanon since 1988 and have two daughters and five grandchildren. Steve formerly served as a trustee at Georgetown Presbyterian Church.

Silvia Potts is joining LPC by Reaffirmation of Faith. She was born in Romania and moved to the United States seven years ago. Her son, Eyan, attends Pre-K at The Academy. Silvia began attending LPC many years ago, but now she believes it is important to raise her son in the church and to be in worship regularly.

Tim served for five years in the U.S. Navy and retired after working for 30 years at Procter and Gamble. Jan worked as an employment counselor before “retiring” to raise their boys. Tim and Jan have been married for 48 years and have two married sons and two grandsons. They were attracted to LPC by the traditional worship and its Biblical preaching. Tim enjoys gardening and Jan enjoys genealogy research.

Kristen Schwieterman is joining LPC by Reaffirmation of Faith. She works as a family Nurse Practitioner in Waynesville. In her free time she likes hanging out with her niece, gardening and watching Dayton Flyers basketball.

Chris and Jenny Stevens moved to Lebanon in 2012 from Centerville, Ohio and are originally from Lebanon. They have two children, Skylar (4), and Alexis (2 months old). Jenny is joining by letter of transfer from Sycamore Presbyterian Church in Cincinnati and Chris is joining by Reaffirmation of Faith.

Mark van Staalduin is joining by letter of transfer from Chestnut Mountain Presbyterian Church in Flowery Branch, Georgia. Originally from Toronto, he moved to Ohio over a year ago and is employed by AK Steel as a Project Manager.

Lindsay Zirkle lives in Lebanon and works for LCNB as a commercial credit analyst. She has a 12-year-old daughter, Lydia. She enjoys reading, gardening and attending her daughter’s various activities which include swim team and cheerleading. She is joining by Reaffirmation of Faith.

FAMILY SUNDAY

WE GATHER

Welcome and Announcements Ann van der Merwe

Chiming of the Hour (Let us prepare our hearts to worship God)

Prelude Kyle Mazur
Holy Holy Holy arr. Alexander Norden

*Call to Worship (1 Chronicles 29:10-13) Kelsey Hoeffel

Leader: LORD, we give you praise.
People: We give you praise forever and ever.
Leader: LORD, you are great and powerful.
People: Glory, majesty, and beauty belong to you.
Leader: You are honored as the One who rules over all.
People: Wealth and honor come from you.
Leader: You are the ruler of all things.
People: In your hands are strength and power.
Leader: Our God, we give you thanks.
ALL: We praise your glorious name.

*Hymn Hymn 77
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

WE PRAY

Prayer of Confession Kendall Hoeffel
Dear God, You are a generous and loving Father, but we are not the grateful children you desire. We forget that everything we have is a gift from you. We continue to want more. We fail to share what you have given. We want what others have. Forgive us, Lord, and give us grateful hearts. Help us to see the blessings you provide and to share the gifts you give with everyone around us. In Jesus' name, AMEN.

Assurance of Pardon

* Response God is So Good
God is so good, God is so good,
God is so good, he's so good to me.
He loves me so, He loves me so,
He loves me so, he's so good to me.
