Dear Prayer Partners

20 Sept 2023

Philippians 4:19 says, “But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.” First, I would like to give an update on my mom. Her heart is only working at 15% and has long-term complications, but she is doing better than expected. She battles with health issues every day. I’m praising the Lord she is still with us, but please continue to pray for her health needs.

As you all know, my mission field has now moved to San Francisco, California. I arrived here on August 18. Upon arrival, I stayed in a mission apartment while I searched for a place to rent. Within two weeks, the Lord blessed me with the perfect unit. I am only a three-block walking distance from the Woodfin’s and the church. This is super convenient because gas is not cheap here, nor is rent for that matter. Because of the cost of living and not having more support, I am working a part-time job at a gym. It’s run by a Christian man who is very supportive of my mission work here and is willing to accommodate my hours as needed for the ministry work I am doing. So that is such another big blessing.

I am working alongside Jake and Hali Woodfin with Branches Baptist Church. I am doing the same exact work I was doing in New Zealand, but just a little more hands-on with the office side of things. Hali is teaching me all I need to know about how the children’s ministry work is done, so I am in the process of taking that over.

We just celebrated the church’s two-year anniversary on the 17th. We had two new visitors in children’s church, along with adult visitors in the main service. We had a meal afterward, and I was able to sit and talk with a few of the visitors and get to know the area a little better. It’s a blessing to see what the Lord is doing through Branches to reach the community around us.

This is all very new, but I am easily adjusting to things. Please pray that I can raise more support to help offset the cost of living here in the San Francisco area and that more and more souls will come to know the Lord as Savior.

Onward for His Glory,
Patty Bouillon
