

CONNECT GROUP DISCUSSION

1) When you first became a Christian (or got serious about your faith) what things did you choose to give up? Was it easy or hard?

2) Which do you cherish the most? being born into Christ's family? being a stone in His church? or a member of His chosen people? Why?

3) As a new believer did you "long" for God's word or did you have to develop a hunger for it? How hungry for it are you now? (rate yourself from one to ten)

4) What are some glaring beliefs Christians hold that unbelievers do not? How do you think you can convince them of the truth?

5) What are some ways you have been successful in "waging war against fleshly lusts?"
