

Praises!

We print our prayer requests in each week's Sunday bulletin, and so don't normally include them here. But this month we have several praises to celebrate. Mark Jackson was able walk into church a couple of weeks ago with only a walker to assist him. Both of his feet have been amputated, but Mark has been working hard with therapy at Beatrice Health and Rehab, and is getting around much better these days. Also, Azia Meyer, 6-week-old daughter of Nick and Alisha Meyer, has been able to return home following a lengthy hospitalization due to Late-onset GBS (Group B Strep). Jara Carlson's dad, Richard Rudzik, has been struggling with many health problems, but is now much improved. Norm Frerichs is home and doing rehab to avoid falling in the future. Martha McCarthy has undergone heart catheterization, but did not have to have any work done. Praise God for all these things!
