

Opportunities for Women

2 new Ladies Bible studies begin this week

Two new Bible studies for women begin this week, and will continue meeting for the next 6 weeks on Thursdays at 7 pm through Thursday, November 16:

Seamless: Understanding the Bible as One Complete Story, written by Angie Smith, covers the people, places, and promises of the Bible, tying them together into the greater story of Scripture. You will gain an overarching understanding and meaning of the Bible.

To join the "Seamless" Bible study, call Denise Carroll at 402-762-5425.

The Quest: An Excursion Toward Intimacy with God, by Beth Moore, explores how God created us to seek after him and how God desires to be found and known. You will develop a deeper intimacy with God, embracing the adventure that comes with living for God.

To join the "Quest" Bible study, call Peggy VonSpreckelsen at 402-469-3707.

Congregation Votes to Transfer Ownership of the Parsonage

A special Congregational Meeting last Sunday held a vote on the proposal to transfer ownership of the Clay Center Christian Church parsonage. Absentee ballots were available previously in the church office.

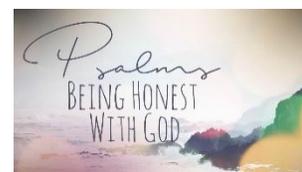

More than 98.2% of the membership voted to transfer the title of the church parsonage to Cheryl Green, the wife of the late John Green, a long-time pastor of Clay Center Christian Church before his unexpected death in 2009.

We thank you for taking the time to learn about this proposal ahead of time during our in-home meetings, and for giving your vote during the meeting. For more information, contact Lyle VonSpreckelsen at 402-984-1218.
