

Missions speaker visiting Sunday from Pibel Bible Camp

Lunch and Church Work Day in afternoon

This Sunday, May 20, we invite you to wear your work clothes, or bring some to change into after worship, to take part in an afternoon Church Work Day.

But first, Clay Center Christian Church will host Kurt Olson from one of our longest-running missions partners: Pibel Bible Camp. Kurt will be traveling from the Ericson, NE, campgrounds to give a ministry update at 9:30 am in the Fellowship Hall.

He will also give a camp update during the Worship Service at 10:30 am.

Over the years, Pibel has benefited not only on our financial support but also on the handiwork many in our church have provided to maintain the facility. A lot of work has been done to update and renovate the campgrounds over the last year, and Kurt will share just how our support has strengthened this ministry's ability to outreach to our children.

After the worship service, join us for lunch in the Fellowship Hall and then get ready to get your hands dirty during our Church Work Day. Outside, we are hoping to make major strides toward the completion of the playground. Inside, we have several general cleaning and organization tasks. There is something for everyone, from children to adults.

However you can help will make a great impact on our church.

Finally, don't forget to bring your gifts for the Johanson Pantry Shower this Sunday! Nonperishable food items, paper products, gift cards, and cash are welcome and are sure to make the Johanson family feel more at home in their new house in Clay Center. Arick Johanson is the new Family Life Pastor. He and his wife, Kacy, have three children: Mason, 8; Jubilee, 5; and Gunnar, 3.

If you're looking to help the Johanson family move from Kearney to Clay Center this weekend, contact the church office at 402-762-3824 or office@ccchristian.org.
