

New Bible Classes Start This Sunday

Marriage and Stewardship electives offered

Join us this Sunday, January 22, for two new electives during our Bible Class hour beginning at 9:30 am:

> The Art of Marriage will be held in Room 112. This 6-week DVD study from FamilyLife, which also hosts the annual Weekend to Remember marriage retreats in March, is appropriate for couples who are married. The class will help you understand God's design for relationships, and will be a great experience for any couple desiring a better marriage and a more Godly marriage. There is a $12 suggested donation to cover the cost of the workbook for this class.

> Financial Peace University Flex will be held in Room 114. This 10-week study by Dave Ramsey is designed to help people get out of debt and create a financial plan for their home. In this study, Dave and his team will walk you through the basics of budgeting, debt management, planning for the future, and much more. There is a $50 fee per couple to cover class materials.

We encourage everyone to be a part of either of these Bible Class electives. Both are great opportunities to grow spiritually.
