Thoughts from Pastor Carol

Elim's Mission Statement

"With faith in the Triune God, the family of Elim Lutheran Church proclaims the Gospel of Jesus Christ through word and sacraments. In our life together as a Christian congregation, we provide a center for members and community to worship and pray; to meet and learn; to be welcomed, nourished, and strengthened; to rest and be comforted; to serve; and to go forth and witness to the world through the prayerful

Greetings Elim family and friends,

Change may very well be the one constant in our lives. Seasons change and the seasons of our lives change. The beautiful reading from Ecclesiastes 3 gives us examples of God's gifts of change. Perhaps it is important for each of us to realize that change is a part of our lives. Change is necessary, and change can be good if we allow ourselves to accept that change is a gift from God.

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: <sup>2</sup> a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; <sup>3</sup> a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; <sup>4</sup> a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; <sup>5</sup> a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; <sup>6</sup> a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away; <sup>7</sup> a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; <sup>8</sup> a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace... <sup>11</sup> He has made everything suitable for its time; moreover he has put a sense of past and future into their minds; (Ecclesiastes 3:1-8,11a)

When I was a young child, I told my dad that I didn't want to die. And his reply has stuck with me from that moment. Dad said, "Wouldn't it be sad if everyone you ever knew was gone and you were the only person on the earth that you knew? Wouldn't that be sad if you stayed alive and everyone you loved and knew, your family and friends, were living with God in Heaven?" My dad was right. I have lost some dear family members, whom I miss and some very special friends, whom I can never tell I love them. We are born, we grow and live our lives, we, die, and then one more change – we receive the gift of eternal life. That's huge!!!

In our very precious Elim family, we experience change. There are births and baptisms, and the ending of school year and the beginning of the next year. Graduations, relocations, new jobs, new homes, adoptions, and birthday sand anniversaries. We experience new knees and health, life and death, so much more. Change is good if we look at change as a gift from God. We are blessed that our lives are not at a standstill. God gives. God is constant. God never changes.

<sup>17</sup> Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the God of light, whom is only that which is constant, not like the changes of the shadows. (James 1:17 paraphrase)

Change can be difficult, but we need to remember that God loves us and is with us throughout all the changes of our lives. God is good, eternally constant, and gives us earthly life for a season. Embrace God's gifts of life, the changing seasons, all that we have, and all that we are and all we are yet to be. Amen.

In Christ's love,

Pastor Carol

Elim Church Council Minutes
Tuesday, June 11, 2019, 6:00 p.m.

Present: Cindy Wolslegel, Pastor Carol, Kjersten Nelson, John Lindstrom, LaVonne Black, Helen Armstrong, Abby D'Eustachio, and Kacie Putz

Not Present: None

Call to order – Opening Prayer and devotions (Kjersten). Helen will do devotions in July. Cindy (August).

Secretary's Minutes: Pastor Carol moves to approve the May minutes. Helen seconds. Motion carries.

Consent Agenda

Treasurer's Report: Income was under budget this month, but so were expenses. Overall, general fund dropped $2700.

Learning Committee: The committee has not met. The committee will work towards the sanctuary play space for the fall. Kacie will talk with Jennifer about next year's Sunday School curriculum.

Worship Committee: Before Sunday's meeting, a couple of issues were raised with Helen. First, there was a suggestion that council members could take turns to open and close up the church on Sunday. LaVonne noted that Scott has liked ringing the bell during services, though this is a pretty dangerous process. There is a bell function on the organ; Pastor Carol will talk to Robyn about this.

The church was hot on Sunday, though the air seemed to start later in the service. We should check to make sure the schedule is set correctly. Shirley Slusher has extra day lilies she can contribute to replace shrubbery and Peggy Haugrud offered to plant them. Helen will mention this to Curt.

Cindy talked to Curt; starting this Sunday, he will be here by 9 on Sunday to unlock the church.

Helen is working on updating usher instructions.

Lenora Scheer is interested in serving on the council.

Property Committee: No report

Stewardship Committee: The committee met and started planning for Stewardship Sundays in the fall. The first will fall on the God's Work Our Hands Sunday, plus two others (including another activity fair like last year). The committee will resume detailed planning when Pastor Carol returns.

Witness Committee: LaVonne reports another individual to add to the visiting list (Ron Moe). Zona will be moving into Fairmount soon. Discussed having a cowboy theme for Friends and Family Sunday (on September 29). LaVonne suggests distributing posters for Friends and Family Sunday to close-by businesses. Abby will pull together a poster.

Service Committee: Abby reports their primary focus is Friends and Family Sunday. Coffee hours have been running smoothly.

Kjersten moves to accept the consent agenda. Abby seconds. Motion carries.

Pastor's Report

No baptisms, no funerals

Volunteers are lined up for a downtown Lutheran churches booth for Streets Alive on June 23. There will be water fill ups and games for kids.

With these same congregations, there are plans for a joint Sunday afternoon service with picnic August 18.

Connie will get one more week of pulpit supply (that will be six weeks). Pastor Carol will then come back for a few hours per day.

Communion Assistants: July 7: Connie will look for someone
July 14: Cindy

With summer coming, Elim has had more requests for financial assistance (rent, utilities, gas, etc.), and our Good Samaritan fund is unable to honor a large majority of the requests. To assist with these needs, you may certainly direct your memorials/donations to Elim's outreach fund. Thank you on behalf of the individuals your donations will help.

We have 22 recipes in the 2019 book, which is wonderful, so let's try to at least double that number for next year. Please submit as many recipes as you'd like. I have a mail slot by the office, so you can put your recipes in there if the office is closed. I look forward to doing the recipe book again. Thank you. Connie Rawls

Chocolate Chip Banana Bread

Pastor Paula Mehmel

1 c. butter )
1 tsp. salt ) Cream together

Add 4 eggs
6 soft bananas

Sift together three times 2 c. sugar
2 1/2 c. flour
1 t. baking soda

Add to above mixture and stir just until mixed.
Add chocolate chips and/or toffee bits as you desire (There's no such thing as too much, according to Pastor Paula.)

Velvety Custard Pie

Connie Rawls

4 slightly beaten eggs
1/2 c. sugar
1/4 tsp. vanilla
2 1/2 c. milk, scalded
Dash of salt

Thoroughly mix eggs, sugar, salt, and vanilla,
Slowly stir in the hot milk. Pour into an unbaked pastry shell. Sprinkle nutmeg on top. (I stir this mixture together in a spouted container, which makes it much easier to pour into the pastry shell.)
Bake in a 475 degree oven for 5 minutes. Reduce heat to 425 degrees, and bake 10 minutes longer or until knife inserted comes out clean. Cool on a rack.
