Arts and culture were at the heart of ancient Greece.

Antony Grafton, Harvard professor of history, states, "Greece, where our language developed, was a center of learning and thought for hundreds of years. The currency of ancient Greek thought has been our contemporary world, from the scientific revolutions of the 17th century to the communications and information technology of today.

Our team of experts will help you get the most out of your experience:

- Expert Guides
- AHI Travel Consultant
- Travel Directors

These experts attend to every detail of your journey.

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join us this fall to explore Greek culture and history in Athens and Gytheio. We’ll start our journey in the Greek capital city of Athens with visits to the Acropolis, Jewish heritage sites, and magnificent ancient monuments.

In Gytheio, we'll stay at the five-star MGallery Collection hotel and enjoy a banquet dinner with dance and music. This evening will feature a presentation to celebrate our alumni, faculty, and friends who have contributed to the program.

Other Educational Excursions

Admire the majestic Acropolis.
Marvel at the idyllic scenery of Monemvasia.
Celebrate at a festive farewell event.
Watch the sun slowly set over the sparkling Laconian Gulf.
Enjoy the bustling nightlife of Monemvasia.
Savor Greece’s palate-pleasing bounty of wine, olives, seafood, and olive oil.
