Dear Johns Hopkins Alumni and Friends,

Join us for an enriching cultural immersion in Mexico! The Yucatán’s Mayan riches and historic grandeur take center stage on this seven-night, first-class journey based in Mérida, a colonial-era beauty and cultural hub.

Be awed by the impressive Mayan cities of Chichén Itzá and Uxmal, both UNESCO World Heritage sites. On guided tours, delight in the heritage and personality along the colonial streets of Mérida and Izamal and sample a unique cuisine. Connect with the Yucatán’s natural beauty on a casual boat ride through the mangroves and an underwater cenote. You’ll also meet artisans, soak in the live music and fun vibes at a unique cemetery. Connect with the region and its history, culture and current events.

This well-rounded program features the camaraderie and security of group travel and the services of a professional Travel Director. What makes it even more special is our commitment to education. Throughout your journey, expert guides and lecturers provide meaningful context to enhance your experience. All these elements make for an unforgettable travel value that will generate lots of interest, so guarantee your place by reserving today. We’ll see you soon in the Yucatán!

Sincerely,

Dear Johns Hopkins Alumni and Friends,

Join us for an enriching cultural immersion in Mexico! The Yucatán’s Mayan riches and historic grandeur take center stage this seven-night, first-class journey based in Mérida, a colonial-era beauty and cultural hub.

Be seduced by the impressive Mayan sites of Chichén Itzá and Uxmal, both UNESCO World Heritage sites. On guided tours, delight in the heritage and personality along the coastal streets of Mérida and marvel at a unique cenote. Connect with the Yucatán’s natural beauty on a canoe that reveals the ever-expanding Mayan underworld. You’ll also see artifacts, soak in the base marine and experience a Canek, a unique cultural pastime, plus learn about the incredible loom technique.

This well-crafted program features the convenience and security of group travel and the services of a professional Travel Director. What makes it even more special is our commitment to local interactions. Throughout your travels, expert guides and lecturers provide meaningful context to enhance your experience. All these elements make for an unbeatable travel value that will generate lots of interest, so guarantee your place by reserving today. We’ll see you soon in the Yucatán!
