Investing in the nation’s infrastructure benefits America.

Increasing investment in the nation’s public infrastructure systems to return them to a state of good repair, expand capacity to meet future demand, and support innovative solutions to future challenges is good for the country and for Montana. Renewing infrastructure investment will put thousands of dollars into the pockets of American households, drive productivity and boost growth, and support expanded private investment.

Benefits for Montana Households

Infrastructure investment increases real disposable income for Montana households.

+$1,500 average more per year over 20 years
+$30,100 more in total over 20 years

Benefits for Montana Workers

Infrastructure investment creates more jobs for Montana workers.

+4k additional Montana jobs by 2030

Benefits for Montana Businesses

Infrastructure investment drives productivity and boosts output in Montana industries.

20-year Cumulative Addition to Real Output for Top Montana Industries (2020$)

+$14B
Other Services* (includes personal and non-tradable services)

+$6B
Finance, Insurance, & Real Estate

+$6B
Construction

Return on U.S. Investment
Long-Term U.S. GDP
U.S. Average Real Wages
U.S. Private Investment

$3.82
+$8.2Tril
+$1.47/hr
+$2.4Tril

Return on every additional $1 invested in infrastructure over 20 years
Additional real economic output over 20 years
Additional average real hourly wages after 20 years
Additional private investment over 20 years

Read the full report at: brt.org/delivering-for-america

*Other Services is comprised of personal and non-tradable services, including repair and maintenance, personal care and laundry services, religious and grantmaking organizations, and household services.