Investing in the nation’s infrastructure benefits America.

Increasing investment in the nation’s public infrastructure systems to return them to a state of good repair, expand capacity to meet future demand, and support innovative solutions to future challenges is good for the country and for North Carolina. Renewing infrastructure investment will put thousands of dollars into the pockets of American households, drive productivity and boost growth, and support expanded private investment.

Benefits for North Carolina Households

Infrastructure investment increases real disposable income for North Carolina households.

+$1,300 average more per year over 20 years

+$25,100 more in total over 20 years

Benefits for North Carolina Workers

Infrastructure investment creates more jobs for North Carolina workers.

+$31k additional North Carolina jobs by 2030

Benefits for North Carolina Businesses

Infrastructure investment drives productivity and boosts output in North Carolina industries.

20-year Cumulative Addition to Real Output for Top North Carolina Industries (2020$)

+$134B Other Services* (includes personal and non-tradable services)

+$61B Finance, Insurance, & Real Estate

+$43B Construction

Read the full report at: brt.org/delivering-for-america

*Other Services is comprised of personal and non-tradable services, including repair and maintenance, personal care and laundry services, religious and grantmaking organizations, and household services.