More than 310,000 Missouri Jobs Depend on Trade with TPP Countries

- International trade, both exports and imports of goods and services, supported more than 826,000 Missouri jobs – more than 1 in 4 – in 2014.
- Of those jobs, more than 310,000 depend on trade with the 11 other countries that are party to the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) agreement.
- 53 percent of Missouri goods exports to the world went to TPP countries in 2014.
- Missouri exported $7.5 billion worth of goods (47 percent of the state's total goods exports) and $1.8 billion worth of services (20 percent) to the six TPP countries that are existing U.S. free trade agreement (FTA) partners in 2014.
- Missouri exported $978 million in goods and $622 million in services to the remaining five (new FTA partner) TPP countries in 2014.

Expanding U.S. trade opportunities by approving TPP in 2016 is a Business Roundtable priority. To learn more about the benefits of trade generally and trade with TPP countries, click here.
