More than 348,000 Washington Jobs Depend on Trade with TPP Countries

- International trade, both exports and imports of goods and services, supported more than 945,000 Washington jobs – more than 1 in 4 – in 2014.
- Of those jobs, more than 348,000 depend on trade with the 11 other countries that are party to the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) agreement.
- 31 percent of Washington goods exports to the world went to TPP countries in 2014.
- Washington exported $17 billion worth of goods (21 percent of the state's total goods exports) and $3.9 billion worth of services (15 percent) to the six TPP countries that are existing U.S. free trade agreement (FTA) partners in 2014.
- Washington exported $8.5 billion in goods and $2.3 billion in services to the remaining five (new FTA partner) TPP countries in 2014.

Expanding U.S. trade opportunities by approving TPP in 2016 is a Business Roundtable priority. To learn more about the benefits of trade generally and trade with TPP countries, click here.
