

sustainability: by the numbers

9.5 million gallons of gasoline and diesel eliminated from Verizon's fuel consumption over the last three years.

Twenty thousand trees saved annually by electronic delivery of State Farm insurance policy documents.

500 thousand people were delivered clean water by the ITT Watermark program.

Six million pounds of recycled paper reclaimed at International Paper facilities in the United States.

Twenty-five % amount of decreased energy needed to make a Texas Instrument product in 2010.

10 million compact fluorescent light bulbs distributed by Duke Energy to their customers in 2010.

650 thousand pounds of carbon dioxide offset by Hertz's solar facility at Denver International Airport.

10,000 tons of carbon dioxide avoided from air travel through use of Telepresence technology at Accenture.

400 number of employees at ABB dedicated to sustainability issues.

75% of the aluminum ever produced by Alcoa is still in use.

60,000,000 dollars of R&D investment by Coca-Cola to advance the use of climate-friendly cooler technology.

8% GHGs reduced by ACE employees reached in 2010 – two years ahead of schedule.

100 million miles of service accumulated by commercial vehicles using Eaton hybrid power systems.

250,000,000 gallons of water saved in 2010 by Praxair through improvements in their product energy and greenhouse gas intensity.

17 thousand the equivalent number of homes that could be powered from cogenerated power supplied by General Mills' oat hulls.

Ninety percent amount of electricity from low-emissions natural gas plants and no-emissions nuclear and renewable energy sites that NextEra generates.