

Pray with us

Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you.

English Ministry/ReFrame Media: A reader of the Today devotional shared, “How timely and effective God’s Word is. . . . Recalling a devotional reading from Today, I found myself smiling as I drove to the office, unexpectedly meditating on the Word and feeling God’s embrace.” Pray that others will also find God’s truth by taking the time to read and reflect on the Bible regularly.

Spanish Ministry – Chile: A husband and father who tunes in to our weekly video program La Vida Ahora writes, “This helped me see my own situation and led me to change my interactions with my wife and daughters.” Praise God for working through this program to help this man live out Christ-centered relationships with his family members.

Arabic Ministry – Egypt: Arabic translations of the Seeking God’s Face devotional are now in print and available in a media ministry bookstore with our partners in Egypt. A large Christian bookstore in Egypt is also considering adding the book to their shelves. May God’s Word continue to reach Arabic speakers around the world. As we remember Jesus’ sacrifice in the season of Lent, pray with us that many around the globe will indeed seek God’s face.

Russian Ministry - Russia: “Even though the Easter celebration is common in today’s Russia, most people have little knowledge of the story behind the holiday,” explains Russian ministry leader Sergei Sosedkin. Pray that ministries, including those of the Christian Reformed Church, will help more people in Russia know and celebrate the life-changing message of Christ’s resurrection.

Hindi Ministry –India: Pray for a woman who has been in contact with our Hindi ministry team. After sharing that she feels alone after her husband left her, the team went to visit with her and others in her community. “We believe that God will work in her life and also bless her family and restore them,” the ministry team said. “Kindly continue to pray for her.”
