

“Katie reviewed my essay and provided excellent feedback as well as helpful suggestions to improve my essay. I found it incredibly helpful that she read and provided feedback for every revision I made.”

Luke-Accepted to the University of Illinois

Great grades, ACT scores, and extra-curricular activities are not the only factors utilized by admissions offices to evaluate students. With more and more students going to college, a strong personal statement can separate you from others. Whether you are looking for help getting started or need someone take a final look, Katie can help.

Contact Katie at:
KatieKeown11@gmail.com
to get started today

KATIE KEOWN ESSAY REVIEW

“Every part of the college application process is important. Little things make a difference. Taking advantage of professional services like those offered by Katie and Rachel could be the difference between getting accepted or not accepted to a college, getting in or not into an honors program, receiving a scholarship or receiving a bigger scholarship.”

– Jason Franklin, Founder of Better Prep Success

Jason Franklin's
BETTERPREPSUCCESS

A resume portfolio can help turn a regular college application into one that grabs the attention of the college admissions office and scholarship committees. Creating a resume portfolio can be challenging and the right guidance can make a big difference.

Rachel has helped many students and can assist you as well.

“Lisa has been awarded a full tuition scholarship for 4 years in the amount of $87,000. The resume portfolio definitely made her stand out based on comments we heard from several of the staff.”

Lisa's Mom
Lisa – Accepted to Columbia College

Contact Rachel at:
Rachel.Smith.04@hotmail.com
To get started today

RACHEL SMITH RESUME PORTFOLIOS