

CUISINE

ASAP Poké is a carryout and delivery only restaurant in Chicago's Lincoln Park that was born out of a single idea: to bring the freshest, sushi-quality fish coupled with seasonal ingredients, as fast as possible. ASAP Poké is a collaboration between Chef Tim Hockett (M Burger, Nacional 27 and Tallboy Taco), Naoki Sushi's Chef Naoki Nakashima, and Chef Hisanobu Osaka. All three chefs contribute different flavors and influences to ASAP Poké's menu. The menu honors the island tradition of sushi-quality fish and seasonal products. Choose from the signature poke bowls and rolls or hand-craft your own from an extensive list of ingredients, seasonal toppings and housemade sauces.

EXPERIENCE

ASAP Poké is available for carryout and delivery seven days a week for lunch and dinner. Get ASAP Poké delivered fresh to your door from Caviar, UberEats, or GrubHub

CATERING

From family and friends to your staff and clients, make your next catered event something to remember. The Build Your Own Bowl Bar allows your guests to create a custom poke bowl from a selection of fresh fish, seasonal vegetables and handmade sauces. Looking for something even more interactive? The Build Your Own Maki Roll Kit includes nori paper and traditional maki ingredients to shape personalized rolls. We are happy to deliver to your door, or take care of everything from staffing to set-up and clean-up.
