CAREER SUMMARY

Christian specializes in industrial acquisition, sales, and tenant representation in the Pacific Northwest. His particular focus is on the logistics markets, with deep interest in and knowledge of the supply chain across the country and is part of the Northwest Logistics Advisors team.

Christian is a current SIOR designee, member of CSCPM (Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals), Harbor Truckers association and Washington State Truckers association. Together with the team, Christian has successfully completed nearly $2 Billion in volume in various cities across the country. He is recognized as an authority in the logistics markets and possesses persistence and creativity in transactions, earning a deep loyalty in his client base.

Before his career in Real Estate, Christian worked in third party logistics, where he gained valuable experience with planning, warehousing, product flow, and organizing cargo movement from Asia and Europe to the United States.

Christian is on the board of directors for Mary Bridge Children's Hospital, where he chairs the Allocation. He is also on the Complex Gifts Committee for the Greater Tacoma Community Foundation and Board of Directors for CompassionateLEE, the philanthropic arm of Lee & Associates.
