PROFILE

Dillon Claffey is an Associate at Lee & Associates Charleston who specializes in industrial and office space. He works with tenants to identify the perfect spaces for their needs while helping landlords maximize the value of their properties.

Previously, Dillon worked as a Market Researcher at Lee & Associates, where he supported the brokerage team by providing research, data visualization, and holistic market expertise for a wide range of objectives. Dillon's responsibilities included developing and maintaining tenant comparable, conducting ownership and historical property research, and preparing information for quarterly market research reports and company publications.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from The College of Charleston, majoring in Commercial Real Estate Development with a minor in Project Management. During college, he interned at Clement, Crawford & Thornhill, gaining valuable industry exposure and experience that continue to contribute to his success in the field.

In his free time, Dillon enjoys spending time on the water, playing pickleball and tennis, and riding dirt bikes.
