CAREER SUMMARY

Bob Lindgren has over a third of a century of involvement in the brokerage, management and development of commercial, industrial and investment real estate. Beginning his career during a recession, Bob has assisted his customers and clients throughout every kind of financing and economic environment. Meeting the challenge of accomplishing the client's goals has helped him gain experience in tenant and landlord representation, brokerage of investment property, funding of equity and consulting on the development and redevelopment of properties. These experiences help make Bob an excellent choice to help solve your real estate needs.
