Let's Journey Together!

Steven Goad

An African proverb states, "If you want to go fast—go alone. If you want to go far—go together." I am always amazed when I see geese flying together in formation. Each one takes a turn in the front of the V. The entire flock shares the burden of leadership. And when they are not leading, they are honking support for the one that is. They may not fly as fast this way, but they certainly fly farther. We can't do this thing called life solo. We need each other for the long journey. "Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their labor. For if they fall, one will lift up the other, but woe to him who is alone when he falls, for he hasn't another to help him up" (Ecclesiastes 4:9).
