LOCAL NEWS

In keeping with our Fifth Sunday schedule, we will have an extended service this morning followed by a fellowship meal. There will be no evening services.

Ryan has volunteered to teach in my absence on May 9. He is preparing his own lesson and not using a book. I still need Wednesday night teachers for several weeks over the summer and a couple in the fall. A sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board for any men who are willing to teach.

SENTENCE SERMONS

What Jesus said to the thief before He died in Luke 23:43 is what He said to the world after He was raised in Mark 16:16. Thus...

Anyone looking at the thief as the way to be saved is looking at the wrong cross!

“Let brotherly love continue”

It is good to be home after a few days of preaching in Victoria, Texas. We had a great youth rally on Friday and Saturday, with attendance exceeding both expectations and goals on the first night! The rally was followed by three wonderful Lord's Day assemblies. The building was nearly full on Sunday morning with more than 150 present! Travel home was a bit dicey at times, but everything worked out and I was also able to visit Jamie Long on my way home.

Rhonda and I are again blessed with company this weekend. On Thursday afternoon, Shelby and Mallory (and Noah) came in as the girls were to be in Montgomery for a wedding. Rhonda and I (mostly Rhonda) babysat sweet Noah on Friday and Saturday.

Ryan has volunteered to teach on Wednesday night, May 9. What I REALLY need now is men willing to share teaching duties through the summer months. I have ordered a new Wednesday book for the summer term, Toward Spiritual Maturity by Wendell Winkler, and each lesson is chock full of material. A sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board for any who are willing to teach. The Lord's church, and this church, need more men to step up and teach. You will be blessed in your preparations, and the church will be blessed to hear you.

Looking ahead! Our VBS will be July 22-25 with the group from Arnold MO coming down to help us with this effort. We need everyone to be here as well as a few volunteers to house our guests who will arrive on Saturday, July 21. Rhonda and I anticipate our house will be full, but with 20+ guests coming, we'll need a few more folks to help with housing.

Also looking ahead, Ryan Gallagher and I have coordinated a combined congregational effort for Wednesday, August 1. On that evening, starting at 6 p.m., we will have a public reading John's gospel in its entirety. This should take about an hour and a half or so. We need a handful of men to volunteer to participate in the reading. Each volunteer will have a chapter or two to read, and you can work with me on which chapter(s) you prefer. We will be advertising this event in the next two issues of House to House.

We love you all.... Todd & Rhonda
