“Let brotherly love continue”

I enjoyed a great, albeit brief, Gospel Meeting last week at Goodsprings in Parrish. I was blessed to have Jamie Long with me Sunday morning! The love the brethren have for him is evident. Health-wise, his lab work and liver function continue to astound his doctors. While he is by no means out of the woods, I am thankful for his progress and long term prognosis.

The fourth Sunday of May is one of my favorites of the year as it generally includes several visitors, including some of my family from the Birmingham area. It is always good to see them as well as members of the Harbin family who visit on this day.

Jeffrey is getting married! Though they have already set a date and secured a venue, he didn’t formally propose to Ashlee until yesterday. They had been waiting as Ashlee searched for a new job in the Jackson area, and she started her new job last week.

Our work and influence in the community continues to grow. The Bible class at the nursing home continues to go well, and the Bible class at the high rise now has a dozen in attendance. Additionally, new people regular to stop me and talk about our TV program. Pray that all these efforts will ultimately bear fruit to the glory of God and the growth of the kingdom.

Looking ahead! Our VBS will be July 22-25 with the group from Arnold MO coming down to help us with this effort. We need everyone to be here as well as a few volunteers to house our guests who will arrive on Saturday, July 21. Rhonda and I anticipate our house will be full, but with 20+ guests coming, we’ll need a few more folks to help with housing.

With our VBS quickly approaching, we need to make some progress on our building repairs and other improvements. Our new security doors are installed, and we will have our parking lot repaired and paved soon. Other immediate improvements needed include replacing the lighting in the church and fellowship buildings. All of these projects need to be put behind us before our VBS. Finally, we still have the new sign in our sights. I have contacted a company in Pelham about types, sizes and pricing. I should know something soon.

We love you all.... Todd & Rhonda

Also looking ahead, Ryan Gallagher and I have coordinated a combined congregational effort for Wednesday, August 1. On that evening, starting at 6 p.m., we will have a public reading John’s gospel in its entirety. This should take about an hour and a half or so. We need a handful of men to volunteer to participate in the reading. Each volunteer will have a chapter or two to read, and you can work with me on which chapter(s) you prefer. We will be advertising this event in the next two issues of House to House.
