Where GOODNESS grows.

The passion project of multi-platinum, three-time GRAMMY Award-winning artist Zac Brown, Camp Southern Ground is a unique and inclusive nationwide camp for children located 30 miles south of Atlanta. The camp's mission is to provide extraordinary experiences for individuals to recognize and magnify their unique gifts within themselves and others to profoundly impact the world.

One Mission • One Camp • Two Causes

During summer, Camp Southern Ground offers week-long sleep away camp sessions serving children ages 7-17, bringing together mainstream kids and those with learning and neurodevelopmental issues such as Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), while including underserved youth and gold, silver and white star children of our military families.

Yet this world-class campus also serves a dual purpose. Inspired by profound patriotism, Camp Southern Ground is a true champion of our nation's veterans. August through May, Camp provides transition support to military or veteran individuals and families by providing a respite environment with programs geared toward workforce readiness and post traumatic growth.
