

CORPORATE MEETINGS AND EVENTS

Long gone are the days where a company event consisted of nametags, banquet halls and anonymity. Events have evolved, and have become a vital part of differentiating yourself from the competition.

Your event is your brand. A brand should be memorable. Understanding who your customers are and what they need allows you to personalize and humanize your brand to show you understand what they care about, and how you can solve their problems/needs.

NO ONE UNDERSTANDS THIS MORE THAN DARYL'S HOUSE.

Daryl's House will help you create the platform that will help you to deliver what your attendees need and want most: the content they need and the connections they value.

Only Daryl's House offers anything you will need for meetings and events of all sizes:

- State-of-the art presentation system, including stage, lighting, sound
- 7' HD Projector and flat screen monitors throughout
- Ability to stream your event live to any remote location(s)
- Custom event packages tailored to your specific needs
- Customized menu options

All of your meeting needs can be met. We will be happy to consult with you to customize a package specific to your event needs.
