Houston Atheists

is a growing group of freethinking people who have come together as a community to offer its members opportunities for social networking, education, and community service. Every month we have a full calendar of activities all over Houston and the surrounding areas, including educational seminars, dinners, coffee socials, happy hour gatherings, star-gazing events, holiday parties, movies, sports/games, hiking and camping, as well as kid-friendly family get-togethers at locations such as the zoo, museums, and the beach.

Humanists of Houston

The premier Humanist group in Houston since 1978. HOH exists to provide the opportunity for like-minded Humanists, atheists, agnostics, skeptics, and freethinkers to fellowship, socialize, and enjoy thought provoking activities on the interesting issues of our day.

In addition to our main Monthly Gathering at Trini Mendenhall Community Center, HOH hosts several other regular events such as discussion groups on various topics of interest.

Secular Student Alliance at the University of Houston

We are a club that promotes secular and humanist values. Our mission is to bridge dialogue between various religious groups and the secular community. We want to advocate for discussion of ideas regarding religion, the humanities, and any topic in today's political climate.
