

ATLANTIC RECORDS' RECORDING ARTIST ALLY BROOKE ADDED TO T.J. MARTELL FOUNDATION'S LA FAMILY DAY LINE-UP

CARNIVAL EVENT TO BE HELD AT THE GROVE ON OCTOBER 5 WITH PROCEEDS BENEFITING THE FOUNDATION'S CANCER RESEARCH PROGRAMS AT CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL LOS ANGELES

Sept. 12, 2019 (Los Angeles, CA)- Atlantic Records' recording artist Ally Brooke has been added to the performance lineup for T.J. Martell Foundation's 10th Annual LA Family Day. The Dancing With The Stars contestant will be performing her latest hits in this exclusive mini-concert. For its fourth consecutive year, The Grove will host the celebration on October 5, 2019 from 12pm-3pm PT. Tickets are available via www.tjmartell.org with proceeds going toward T.J. Martell Foundation's cancer research programs at Children's Hospital Los Angeles.

Brooke will be one of three headlining acts including Nickelodeon star and internet sensation JoJo Siwa and Hollywood Records recording artist, dancer and actor featured in "The Lion King" JD McCrary. The organization will also honor industry leaders Doug Cohn, Senior Vice President, Music & Talent, Nickelodeon with the LA Family Day Visionary Award, and Doug Palladini, Global Brand President, VANS with the LA Family Day Legacy Award for their industry leadership and charitable contributions.

Presented by Citi, LA Family Day attendees will enjoy delicious food, carnival activities, fun photo booths, participate in a live auction and watch live music performances. Ticket prices range from $50-$300, including family packages and special VIP package options that include meet & greets with the headlining performers. The day is hosted by Nickelodeon "All That" star Josh Server.

LA Family Day brings families and leaders from the music, entertainment and business communities together for an afternoon of celebration, fun and fundraising for the T.J. Martell Foundation's cutting-edge cancer research programs. LA Family Day is Co-chaired by David Kovach, Senior Vice President, Global Entertainment, Citi and Nick Lippman, Partner, Lippman Entertainment and is made possible with support from Caruso.

About Ally Brooke:

Ally Brooke is the tremendously talented pop star who, after breaking out as a member of the multi-platinum pop group Fifth Harmony, signed with Atlantic Records in 2018 and is now preparing to release her solo debut album. Hailing from San Antonio, Ally first gained the world's attention as a solo contestant on "The X Factor". After a chart-topping and heavily awarded stretch with Fifth Harmony, the singer spent an intense year in the studio with some of the music world's top songwriters and producers, and first emerged with her solo debut single "Low Key" that features a verse courtesy of the rapper Tyga and became a Top 20 radio hit. "Lips Don't Lie", Ally's sultry second single, soon followed and was a Top 40 hit featuring A Boogie Wit Da Hoodie. Up next, Ally will grace TV screens nationwide as she competes for the highly coveted Mirrorball Trophy on ABC's "Dancing With The Stars".
