How to play the game:

Find a dice.
Divide the cards into their seven categories (check the number and colour on the cards).
Place the seven piles of cards face down on a table.
You will use the seventh category at the end of the conversation.
Ask the youngest player to roll a dice to select a category.
The player picks the top card from the selected category and reads the question or challenge out loud.
Let the reader respond first, then others can respond in turn.
When the conversation on that topic has finished, place the card face-up and make a new pile of the cards that have been discussed.
Take as much time as you like.
At the end, use the top card of the purple coloured cards to close the conversation.

How to use the cards in different settings

One to one conversations
You can use the cards from this category to finish any conversation such as a pastoral visit, a Bible study or a meeting.

Classes and groups
The cards could be utilised as an opener and closer to classes such as Junior Soldiers, Corps Cadets, Character Building, Sunday School, Scouts and Guides and Bible study groups. You could also decide to split into small groups and give each group a different card to discuss.
Mentorship
Print a few cards and take them with you when you have a conversation with your mentor or mentee. Choose a card and have a conversation!

Meetings
Use the cards to encourage people to share their testimony in a meeting. Choose a card that links to the theme of the meeting. Project the card on a screen and ask someone to answer the question on the card. Or print a card and give it to someone before the meeting, asking them to respond to the question on the card in the meeting. You could also project or print a card and use it to interview someone in the meeting.
