Once tests are completed, a student may check out with a parent note at the stated times. Students may not be checked out during a scheduled testing session.

The Review Period is a time when teachers will be available in the classroom to assist students in preparing for their tests or to follow-up with students regarding tests.

The Flex Testing Period is provided for students to balance their test load and provide flexibility within the schedule. Students may make arrangements with teacher for the tests listed above.

Tests may not be taken early. Students who miss tests will be notified of make-up testing days following the last day of school so arrangements can be made.

Students may wear regular dress code attire or Friday spirit wear attire (see handbook for guidelines) during testing days. Students not in appropriate attire will not be permitted to take their finals.

Lunch will not be sold on Friday or Monday.

After-school care will not be available on Friday or Monday.

Students who qualify may exempt some of their finals. The Exemption Policy can be found here. Exemption lists will be posted Monday, May 7.
