By now it should be more than clear that there is only one realistic solution to the crisis at hand: getting as many children out of the government's indoctrination centers as quickly as possible. Rearranging the deck chairs on the public-school Titanic will only produce more misery and ultimately disaster. We must save as many as can be saved before the ship goes down and takes America and liberty into the abyss with it. When conservatives and Christians say that the government-school system is "broken," they show a fundamental misunderstanding of the problem. In reality, the system is working perfectly. Indeed, it is doing exactly what its architects intended: turning America's children against God, family, country, truth, and liberty. Trying to "fix" something that is functioning flawlessly is absurd.

Would you try to fix or reform a cancer? Of course not. The government-school system is a cancer that will ultimately kill the patient if it is not dealt with. It was a mistake to let government educate children in the first place, and doubling down on a mistake is an even bigger mistake. Parents must be in charge of educating their children just as parents are in charge of feeding their children.

Hopefully, by now, you have decided to do everything possible to protect your children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and neighbors from these toxic brainwashing camps. To do otherwise is to play Russian Roulette with your precious progeny, only the data show there are five chambers containing live rounds instead of just one. Don't take that risk.

Where does one start? Step one is simple: Make the right decision. After that, the rest is easy. First, check the legal requirements in your state — some states have few to none, others have fairly significant hurdles to overcome. Next, decide what options are right for you: homeschooling, private school, co-op, curricula, and so on. Finally, act on it!

Don't think you can't do it. Plenty of resources are available to assist you.

Public School Exit, a nonprofit organization dedicated to liberating children from government schools that includes both of us on its board, has created a handy guide to help parents navigate the process.

The guide includes helpful links to resources you may need. Go to: publicschoolexit.com/stepstoleave.

One great option is FreedomProject Academy (fpeusa.org), where Dr. Duke Pesta is academic director and Alex Newman teaches an economics course. The online school, which is affiliated with The John Birch Society, the parent organization of thenewamerican, offers a classical education with real history, traditional math, phonics, biblical moral principles, and more at a fraction of the cost of traditional private schools. FPA has seen record enrollment and serves children across America and beyond.

For those who cannot or prefer not to homeschool, another option is to look for a good private school — and to choose carefully, since many have Common Core, Critical Race Theory, etc. If a good private school is not available, please consider talking to your minister, priest, or rabbi, about starting one. Church buildings used only once or twice weekly could be put to good use throughout the week.

If money seems an insurmountable obstacle, and rearranging your finances to make your children's education a top priority has already been done, know that there are many scholarship programs and other resources available. Americans who may not now have school-age children of their own are often willing to help families in need, and such generous benefactors may be in your own church community. Rescuing your children from government schools is well worth the sacrifice — which, considering the resources available, may be far less than you might now assume.

Even after you have made the decision to save your own children, you could not, in good conscience, allow other children to be destroyed. It is imperative that you help sound the alarm and warn the nation. To that end, consider ordering extra copies of this magazine, getting active at the local level, bringing in speakers, working with your church, and letting your community know that the government schools are on fire! Please also consider joining The John Birch Society (jbs.org),

Carve The Truth In Stone.

*Though the cause of Evil prosper, yet 'tis Truth alone is strong,
And, albeit she wander outcast now, I see around her throng
Troops of beautiful, tall angels, to enshield her from all wrong
Then it is the brave man chooses, while the coward stands aside,
Doubting in his abject spirit, till his Lord is crucified,
And the multitude make virtue of the faith they had denied*
— James Russell Lowell, The Present Crisis (1845)

The “cause of Evil” is indeed prospering, and Truth does surely “wander outcast now.” The ruling elites of our political and cultural institutions have joined with Pontius Pilate in asking, “What is truth?” In fact, the intelligentsia of our age, for the past century or more, have been declaring there is no such thing as absolute truth, absolute morality, absolute right or wrong.

But the purveyors of moral relativism know that the soul of man has been instilled by his Creator with a desire and need for truth. So, while denying the incarnate Truth (Jesus said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life”) and denying objective truth in general, the moral relativists have no qualms about totally reversing themselves and positing new contradictory “truths” that they insist all humanity must embrace, absorb, and regurgitate as dogma. And they have their media “fact checkers” and “truth meters” to monitor and enforce their new dogmas.

The old truths are being completely uprooted and turned upside down, to be replaced by the new “truths.” This is happening with such ferocity and rapidity that many people are astounded, dumbfounded, and completely perplexed that such absurdities and perversions could be actually occurring. How to make sense of such dangerous and mendacious nonsense? What does one do when the whole world is being turned into a madhouse?

First, it is necessary to realize that the chaos and madness we face is organized chaos and madness. It is the work of several generations of conscious subversion and undermining of truth and the virtues that make a truly humane and just civilization possible: faith, hope, charity, prudence, justice, temperance, fortitude. Christianity, Christian culture, biblical morality, the family, marriage, nationhood, patriotism, national symbols, national heroes, national borders, and more are all targeted for destruction. Who has organized this chaos and madness?

A century ago this madness was unleashed in its most violent form in the Bolshevik Revolution.

Under the iron fists of Lenin and Stalin, the Soviet Communist Party began forming the “New Soviet Man.” Tens of millions of corpses later (plus millions more souls banished to the prison gulags) — and after decades of brainwashing, censorship, and police- state surveillance — the communists had achieved a level of brain-dead conformity that almost approximated their ideal of the New Soviet Man. Almost, but not quite.

In China, the communists sought to do the same, beginning in 1950 with their Thought Reform, based on Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung Thought. A decade and a half later, Mao launched the more radical and deadly version of this “reform,” the infamous Cultural Revolution, in which millions of his young Red Guards were unleashed to attack and cancel the “Four Olds”: old ideas, old culture, old habits, old customs. Statues, temples, churches, and shrines were pulled down and destroyed. Priceless, ancient books and manuscripts were burned. Christians, Buddhists, Muslims, Taoists, and followers of Confucianism were viciously persecuted and many were martyred. People (including communist professors and teachers) who were accused of politically incorrect thought were publicly humiliated, beaten, forced to confess their thought crimes, and sometimes killed.

Many on the revolutionary Left here in America today, including leaders of Black Lives Matter and Antifa, openly acknowledge their Marxist-Leninist-Maoist pedigrees, as do many of the professors who have trained them. What is different today is the open alliance between these communist-socialist revolutionaries rioting and agitating in the streets and their capitalist globalist comrades who are not only financing them, but also bolstering them with free media propaganda. Bill Gates, George Soros, Mark Zuckerberg, and their ilk are in accord with Xi Jinping, Mikhail Gorbachev, Ayatollah Khamenei, and the would be potentates of the United Nations in creating a “New World Order,” a global superstate ruled by the globalist Übermenschen (Supermen, Overmen).

The United States of America is the main geopolitical obstacle to their new order, which is why they are moving so aggressively to destabilize and dismantle it with a series of fabricated crises founded on lies: the COVID crisis, climate crisis, migration crisis, race crisis, gender crisis, etc.

What must we do? Join the “Troops of beautiful, tall angels” and fearlessly, relentlessly seek the truth, speak the truth, and defend the truth — with all the strength we can muster. ★

Why Christian Parents Must Consider a Mass Exodus From Government Schools for Their Children

There has never been a better time for parents—and especially Christian parents—to get their children out of government schools. That is the message pastors and families all over America need to hear right now. From the indoctrination and sexualization of children to the unprecedented dumbing down and now the outrageous "coronavirus" measures, the time has come.

When we first embarked on this mission, the idea of encouraging all parents to get out was seen as "fringe," if not ridiculous. But today, the tables have turned. Talk-radio titan Rush Limbaugh, evangelical leader Franklin Graham, former President Donald Trump and even internationally known ministry leader and talk show host James Dobson have now all sounded the alarm on this subject.

With coronavirus keeping children home from public schools around the world, our growing coalition of Christian ministry leaders, lawyers, educators and journalists are working to make sure that once the crisis is over, millions never go back. Instead, what America and the church need is a massive—and permanent—exodus into the safe sanctuary of homeschooling and high-quality private schools.

On the one hand, I can't encourage parents strongly enough to try out true homeschooling—not government school at home — during the coronavirus shutdown. Just stop relying on the government, period! At the same time, parents should closely examine the material public schools are using. Most would be appalled.

On another front, it is time for pastors across America to advance this mission too. They will be key. For one, they should preach on what the Bible says about education. It will not take long for Bible-believing pastors to recognize that God never intended His people to hand their children over to anti-Christian government schools for "education." Rather, parents are told to disciple and educate their children.

Pastors have a key role to play in making the exodus happen. Toward that goal, they should talk to their elders and churches about how they can help families. It will look different at each church. Some may want to start a Christian school. Others may just want to facilitate a homeschool co-op. Smaller churches may simply want to set up a virtual Christian academy. No matter what, we are here to help.

There are many compelling reasons for parents and pastors to protect the children from government schools right now, even if they have not been doing it before. Consider, for example, the state laws proliferating across America mandating LGBT indoctrination of all children. Radical "sex education" with roots in absolute evil, meanwhile, begins in kindergarten. And that is just the start.

On the religious front, it is a grim picture. In California, a newly approved "ethnic studies" curriculum would see children chant and pray to the Aztec gods of human sacrifice and cannibalism. Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism and more are all welcome, but not the God of the Bible. As Jesus explained twice in the Gospels, whoever is not with Him is against Him. Simple question: Is your local government school with Christ?

Academically, the government itself admits that government schools are failing children—with devastating results. Many high school graduates lack even basic literacy and math skills. Over two-thirds of children in government schools are not even considered "proficient" in any subject, the federal government revealed in its latest National Assessment of Educational Progress results.

The shutdown brought about by coronavirus has created millions of new temporary homeschool families around the world. Now is the time to strike. If you think children deserve better than the godless pseudo-education offered by government schools, help spread the word.

The church has an incredible opportunity here. Let's not miss it. ★ the profreedom, anti-totalitarian organization that has chapters throughout the country. If parents continue allowing their children to be brainwashed and destroyed by government, America, liberty, and countless churches will be decimated in the years ahead. The nation cannot survive another generation of this. But if enough children can be saved in time, it may still be possible — with God's help — to restore all that was once good about America. Act now! ★

In a Riveting game of volleyball after dinner on Tuesday Evening, Team butterscotch led by Christina Carter opened an early 4 to 0 lead against Cookie Crumbles led by JP. Watching the clock to make sure they were not late to class, the rotation caused a lot more trouble than anticipated. In an exciting volley started by Sophie Carter's serve resulted in another point for team butterscotch. The following volley resulted in a rotation and Emily Gimenez of team Cookie Crumbles, had a powerful serve getting another point for her team. The score now standing at 5 for the butterscotch and 2 for the cookie crumbles. Excitement soon followed with the best volley of the night with over 5 passes over the net until it landed behind the fence in the poison ivy promptly ending the game. The end! Final winning team Butterscotch. ★

Uncle Sam Makes Balloons

While the recreation period was in full swing, many of the Junior Patriots were treated to balloon animals and some very creative head treatments. That Spunky / Uncle Sam can sure keep the kids tied up in knots. Professor Willie Soon could not pass up the opportunity to take a trek down amnesia lane. He got to relive a piece of his childhood all over again. Haven't we all been guilty of that from time to time. It certainly seems that all involved had a blast. ★

Monday's Campfire

Mrs. White has been doing a tremendous job with campfire. She has several classes to teach this week as well, so Mr. Affleck will be organizing and screening camper activity on her behalf. Stop by the newsroom directly under the speakers' podium to sign up for participation.

Our second night showcased jokes from Bethany Decker, Sarah Daniels & Shibastian Belanger. Marlee Newman stunned the camp with his recital from memory of John 1:1-7 in both English and Latin! Bravo, young man. The Von Newman Family Singers made their public debut with a rendition of Amazing Grace. They were so good, the rest of the camp could not resist joining in. The mystery Umbrella Dance was performed by Christina Carter and Gabriella Giminez. Mr. Joshua Vileniskis played "Concerning Hobbits" on the violin.

"Colette's Corner"

By Colette Chu

On Sunday night there was a huge game of Duck-Duck-Goose. By big, I mean BIG! About twenty-five kids and teens played.

Before my little sister and I left, we ran around the basketball court playing tag. There were some teenage boys playing basketball. My sister and I were leaving when one of the boys yelled at my sister, "Go kid, we're trying to play ball!" I wish he has spoken in a nicer way.

CANNON FIRE

After the group photo today, cannon firing demonstrations took place by the basketball court. Thanks to Mr. Wanager for bringing the cannons again this year.

Spunky the Clown brought excitement to the campfire with his juggling torch routine. Mr. Tom Moor lead the camp in recitation of the preamble and the Krutov sisters lead the clapping game.

Some old favorites that were sung last night: My Bonnie, Clementine, My Grandfather's Clock and Fox Went Out. Devotions and Taps rounded out the affair. ★

Boys Dorm A

You definitely picked it up this time. You still have not named your cabin. Bribes are always welcome. Your candy is far superior to Dorm B. Hershey Kisses are a winner and you can't go wrong with snickers. The floors and bathroom need a bit of attention. Streamers are nice, and flags are appropriate. We can see the effort is there. ★

Rev Craft 2024

We assume the tape on the door depicts your name change. Is that the Rev's age or what is the significance of 2024. We see the effort. The decorations are getting really good. All the Beds seemed to be decorated, we like the switch plate, balloons and streamers galore! The room was neat but there was some stuff under the beds. Don't hide your decorations under them. What's the deal with the gum and ketchup? That's a strange combo and there wasn't enough ketchup to go around. Was that a subliminal message? Like, we need to catch up or something like that? Oh, what's up with the toe prints on the sink? We suspect the owner of the grey tennis shoes is your culprit. We were gonna score you a 7.25 again but the Christian flag bumped you up. ★

Score: 8.00

Hobby Lobby

The doormat alone is worth a point. We never miss a chance to scrape the slime from our feet onto that symbol from hell. The room is neat and tidy. The Balloons were a nice edition. Flag draped beds are nice. Your Bible niche is beautiful. You might want to select a daily reading instead of keeping it on the same passage. The candy was improved but you broke our hearts by including some of Cabin B's recycled 2019 Halloween candy. The candy even Cabin B wouldn't use. Yuck! How old is your creepy chamber made? Why do you keep her in the corner. ★

Score: 8.0

Room 4

You're a day late and a dollar short. You have some catching up to do. We see your room was bugged. You might want to check on that. With the score as it is, I sure hope you have a mail-in ballot campaign organization. Something smelly is going on in Room 4. We were kept a safe distance from the room. ★
