A Note from an Absentee Camper:

Dear friends,

Sorry I couldn't physically be there with all of you, but I will be there in spirit and I promise to be there next year :). I hope you all have a wonderful time, meet new people, and learn new stuff. Love and miss you all! For all the new campers this camp is amazing, you will meet the best people in the world here and the smartest. Some advice: take as many notes as you can, follow the rules, and most importantly have FUN!!!

Love,

Mikey Lutz

Patriotic Jokes and Trivia

Why did the duck say bang? Because he was a firequacker!

Why did Paul Revere ride his horse from Boston to Lexington? Because the horse was too heavy to carry!

Did You Know...?

Benjamin Franklin wanted the turkey to be the national animal but was outvoted when John Adams and Thomas Jefferson chose the bald eagle.

The 4th of July was not declared a national holiday until 1941.

John Hancock was the only person to actually sign the Declaration of Independence on July 4th 1776. The other 55 signers did not sign it until August 2nd or later.

Both Thomas Jefferson and John Adams died on July 4th, 1826 - the fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Polar Bear Swim:

Until further notice, to placate Mr. Shurtleff, who will only be happy if the lake water was 40 degrees, the Polar Bear Swim will be called the Solar Bear Swim. The first swimmer to enter the water was Ian Smith who was then followed by Mr. Smith, Mike Smith, Ms. Mazzarella, Mr. Shurtleff, Mr. Tallmaso, and Mr. Hoderney. The beach potatoes were Kay Clark, Gracie Kalis, Mr. Smith, and Haley Kalis.

Cabin Inspections:

Hebron A:

Wouldn't want to go all out on the first day, huh? The t-shirt display was nice as well as the itsy bitsy teeny weeny yellow "don't tread on me" flag . Now reading the "may cause" labels on insect repellents might be interesting to inspectors with extremely dull lives but not us!

Score: 26

Hebron B:

Left yourselves a lot, a lot, a lot, a lot of room for improvement. The eagle and the beautiful beanie baby bears were cute. Camp photos are always nice and would like to see more if you have them!

Score: 27

Bethel 5:

Eyore, a horse, and giraffe - sounds like a bad campfire joke...is it? Should we have eaten the mints before eating a peach or the other way? Neither seemed very good.

Score: 30

Bethel 6:

This is what we've been waiting to see! Flags and "In God We Trust" signs, a vase with red white and blue flowers, (not locally foraged) - very good! Although fat rabbit could use some exercise; he should see Mr. Shurtleff at 6:30 tomorrow morning.

Score: 36

Bethel 7 - Soon to be Bethel 4:

What a mess. You got a "one" because we guessed it could have been worsemaybe.

Score: 1

Bethel 10:

Wow, this is the sort of thing we like - hand made by campers! Especially those of us who appreciate the multiple uses of duct tape. The crafts woman who made the duct tape "don't tread on me" flag has to bring this out so everyone can see it.

The Giant and the Dwarves

First off on Sunday, we played tug-of-war and steal the bacon. There were two teams: The Giant and the Dwarves and the Ruptured Spleens. Although the Giant and the Dwarves were obviously superior, they did not want to show their true potential, the Ruptured Spleens won more games.

Then we had boys againsts girls tug-of-war. The boys won (thanks to Mr. Peik and Mr. Tomaso). After a few good game of tug-of-war we played steal the bacon. One of the highlights of the game was when Gus Kalis beat Mr. Nowak. The entire scene was absolutely hysterical. At another funny moment, Shawn Durkin from the Ruptured Spleens went up against David Tomaso as well.

Haley Kalis from the Giant and the Dwarves team seemed to be a big star of the game as well. People were running, diving, pushing, pulling and basically being extremely aggressive the entire time. Very competitive but amazingly fun!

Though the Giant and the Dwarves were doing great and the Ruptured Spleens were crushing skulls, there was a little change. Pat stepped in to replace David Tomaso but was a beast and bravely led the Dwarves to greatness. Steal the bacon ultimately ended by the Dwarves winning - what a victory!!
