This building was constructed in 1890 for the F. Puget Race Drug Store. The lower part of the building was occupied by Will Tenney, a shoemaker. The Drug Store occupied the building for many years and later it was rented as an apartment. Since the 1960's, the building has been operated as the Old Town Shop. The south facade of the building has been altered over the years with an entrance on the east facade replaced by windows, and the awning added to the south facade.

1995: one contributing building.
