

Review

- Humanities passages usually feature a minority artists going against the grain.
- Science passages feature cause and effect relationships, and evolution is a very common LSAT topic.
- Dual passages: look for similarities and differences between the passages.
- Legal passages: pay attention to distinctions and arguments by analogy.
- History passages often feature new kinds of historical sources.

Review

- Most Reading Comp questions are “Passive” questions
- Read for tone!
- Start to learn how the typical LSAT author “thinks”.