

Four Corner Pieces Details

Four questions about the heart

1. Do I believe that God owns it all?
2. Do I believe that God's word speaks to money?
3. Do I believe that I have enough right now? (Am I content?)
4. Am I using the supernatural wisdom that has been given to me?

Five habits of money management

How to determine financial health

To find lifestyle number: subtract giving, debt, savings and taxes from income. These numbers can primarily be found on the tax return. The result is what you are spending to live.

There are no independent financial decisions. Anytime we change one piece, it changes the other pieces also. We have five simultaneous and competing priorities.

Hope

Build margin by:

- Following the habits
- Changing the pie to the way I want it to be
- Asking God what he would have me to do
