

15 Questions You Should Ask

Before Undergoing Any Surgical Procedure

1. How long have you been performing the treatment I am interested in?
2. Do you have hospital privileges to perform the treatment I desire?
3. How often do you perform the treatment I am interested in?
4. How many treatments are needed?
5. If considering a new product or device: How long has it been used?
6. Can I see before and after photos?
7. Can I speak with individuals who have had this treatment done?
8. What are the possible complications?
9. Have you seen any complications?
10. If you have seen complications, how were they treated?
11. Who does the treatment, you or is it delegated to someone else?
12. How available are you after the treatment?
13. Are you affiliated with any academic institutions?
14. What does it mean to be board-certified?
15. What did it take to get board-certified?

