

KID-ATHLETES OF THE WORLD

Meet six kid-athletes who rock at their sport while living (and playing) with character.

PHINETTE, 13
Brooklyn, New York, USA

Phinette and the Brooklyn Comets are leading the future of women's basketball in America. She plays with never-quit spirit and the dream to become a scholar-athlete in college.

JETT, 13
Sydney, Australia

Living just one block from the Australian coast, Jett is always out exploring. He scuba dives, spearfishes, and even rides dirt bikes in the bush.

AMANDA, 14
Belo Horizonte, Brazil

In the soccer-crazed country of Brazil, Amanda plays on one of the elite girls teams in her city. She's quiet, calculated, and has a mean left foot!

AKIRA, 12
Tokyo, Japan

The captain of his Tokyo baseball team, Akira plays year-round as the pitcher and center fielder. He's also the tallest on his team by almost one foot.

RINO, 14
Laax, Switzerland

Rino lives just outside of Laax, Switzerland, the best mountains in the world for trick skiing. You can find him skateboarding, windsurfing, and, of course, snowboarding.

PATIENCE, 14
Iten, Kenya

Patience lives in Iten, Kenya, the best place in the world for professional marathon runners to train. She's fast, has grit, and knows what it takes to finish a challenging race.
