

Federal Trade Commissioner Rebecca Slaughter to be Keynote Speaker at 2019 CDIA Law & Industry Conference

Federal Trade Commissioner Rebecca Slaughter will join the 2019 CDIA Law and Industry Conference as a keynote speaker on June 5, 2019, in Washington, DC. Having played a key role in protecting American consumers and promoting competition in the US economy, Commissioner Slaughter will discuss her priorities for protecting consumers in light of evolving threats to data privacy and security.

“We are honored to have Commissioner Slaughter join us at our Law and Industry Conference,” stated Francis Creighton, CDIA President & CEO. “Commissioner Slaughter is a champion of consumer protection. Her work at the FTC impacts the entire data industry, CRAs, data furnishers, vendors and beyond, with authority on matters as broad as the Safeguards Rule on data security, privacy, credit repair and more.”

REGISTER TODAY TO SECURE YOUR PLACE AT THIS MUST-ATTEND EVENT!

The CDIA Law and Industry Conference is geared particularly to corporate counsel, general counsel, compliance officers, company executives, government relations professionals, policy directors, and data quality assurance professionals.

For more information on this noteworthy event (including speakers, an updated agenda, and/or to register) please visit the CDIA Law and Industry Conference event page. You can also contact us at CDIA_Training@cdiaonline.org or 202-408-7417.

To view CDIA's attendance policy, please click here.

CDIA looks forward to seeing you there and encourages you to share this invitation with others in your company who may benefit from attending this event.